NARROW ESCAPE

From a Fatal Accident Over at Martin's

Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock as train No. 38 for Pittsburg was entering the south end of Martin's Ferry, Charles Grant, a thirteen-year-old son of Robert Grant, an employe of the Northwood glass works, with a companion by the name of Hutchinson, attempted to jump on the forward end of the last coach of the train, but in some manner missed his footing and was caught by the forward trucks, and hurled violently against the end of the ties, injuring his back, and side dangerously. He also sustained several severe cuts and bruises about the head and face. He was taken to his home on Clay street. Drs. Suttleworth and Williams were summoned and examined the wounds, and pronounced them of a very serious nature, but could not state as to the result of the boy's injury until reaction sets in. Young Hutchinson, who was with him at the time, became so badly frightened that he lost all control of himself, and had to be assisted home. Will young men and boys ever learn to stop and think of the awful danger of jumping on and off moving trains.

M. L. BLAIR, Alderman, Fifth ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '83. He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

ALL WANT WATCHES

THE DEMAND FOR TICKERS KEEPS UP BRAVELY.

Two More Time Pieces Stolen—Sent to Jail—A Sad Case at the City Hall—Other Police News.

Six or eight gold watches have been stolen in this city within the past week, and it is beginning to look as though all the amateur thieves in the town had taken it into their heads to steal at least one time-piece each as a means of inaugurating the summer campaign.

Yesterday Charles Hughes, who lives at No. 4519 Jacob street, complained to the police that he had been robbed of a ladies gold watch, valued at fifty dollars. He said a man named Howard Sarver, of Braddock, Pa., had come to his house and asked to stay a short time, and the permission was granted him. When he left, he took the watch with him, according to the suspicions of Mr. Hughes. Sarver is from Braddock, Pa., and is about twenty-three years old, five feet eight inches high, and has light hair.

A man named John Schuitze, employed at Short's saloon, on La Belle street, but whose name, strange to say, neither the police or the Justice in the case seem to know, complained to the police yesterday that a gold watch and two gold rings had been stolen from Mr. Short's residence some time Sunday evening. Officer Conrad arrested a man named Smith, suspected of the crime, and took him before Justice Davis, but as there was absolutely no evidence against Smith, the Justice refused to issue a warrant.

Mrs. Annie Whipple was arraigned before Justice Davis, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, charged with stealing a gold watch from Mrs. O'Hagan, of North Main street, on the 8th inst. As the defendant had made a full confession at the time of her arrest, she was held to the grand jury in default of $500 bail.

LIVELY TIME ON THE SOUTH SIDE.

Officer Devlin had a lively time on the South Side yesterday afternoon. Robert O'Hare, Jr., was in a quarrelsome mood, the result of drink, and getting a little too gay, was put under arrest by the officer. Robert said he would not be arrested, and when Devlin attempted to take him, he jumped on the officer and succeeded in bringing his feet to grass. The officer regained his feet, and made a grab for Robert, but only succeeded in catching hold of his shirt, which the enterprising Robert left in his grasp, running away with nothing on but his trousers and shoes. O'Hare took to the hill, and had not been recaptured up to last evening.

FOR THROWING A BOULDER.

Harry Butler was arranged before Justice Davis last evening, on a warrant sworn out by W. M. Church, who charged that on Sunday night the defendant went to Shallcross' livery stable and threw a three pound chunk of sand-stone at him. Butler admitted the general truth of the charge, and was fined $5 and costs.

A PITIABLE CASE.

Late yesterday afternoon Officer Cruce found a woman in an advanced stage of intoxication stumbling and rolling around on the pavement on Twentieth street. She had a small babe with her and also a six year old boy, and in her drunken endeavors to navigate she several times tramped and rolled over the babe, and the little one might have been killed or crippled in a short time. The officer called the patrol wagon and took the mother and children to the City Hall, but there is no place there for such cases, and after a consultation with some Christian ladies, Chief Debrugge had the mother and children removed to their home, No. 520 Market street, they being accompanied thither in the patrol wagon by Officer Gaus and a well known lady, the latter taking charge of the babe. It was a sad spectacle.

The Grocers of the city and vicinity will observe Thursday, June 18th, as Grocers' Day, at Wheeling Park.

TROUBLE FEARED.
Manager Loftus of the Electric Motor Line Refuses to Recognize the Road Committee.

Yesterday afternoon the members of the Road Committee of the Street Car Employes' Union, A. F. of L., called upon Manager Loftus, and asked for a conference in reference to several minor grievances which they desired to present. The committee is composed of Chairman Martin Carroll, Aug. Rust and Pat Tracy. Mr. Loftus refused to confer with them, taking the ground that there was nothing in the basis of the settlement of the strike last fall, which called for a recognition of the Union. The members of the Union, on the other hand, claim that the very fact that there was a settlement with the Union implies a recognition of the Union. They say the grievances were of minor importance and could have been easily adjusted.

What the outcome of the matter will be is uncertain. No action will be taken without a meeting of the Union, and it is understood a special meeting has been called. It is also understood that the members of the Union will stand firm in their demand for recognition.
