

IN THE CHURCHES PRAISES CARDUI AS GOD-SEND

The Intelligencer will gladly publish church announcements, but to insure publication and proper classification, notices intended for publication in Saturday's issue should be received at the Intelligencer office no later than Friday at noon, and Thursday, if possible. It is respectfully asked that brief notices be made as brief as possible.

To Women—This Alabama Lady's Sincere Expression of Her Experience Will Interest You.

Quinton, Ala.—Mrs. Rebecca Cox of this place, writes: "About 22 years ago I had been in bad health for a year or more, and it didn't look as though I could get well. . . . The beginning of this trouble, I overdid myself. I became suffering with my back. . . . It hurt so. . . . The doctors said it was change of life. . . . and an operation was all that would help me. I felt I couldn't have that and my husband did not believe in potent medicines. When I asked him to get Cardui, he said, 'that's just a dollar thrown away', but to please me, he would get it. I suppose there was a year I was never hungry and after taking Cardui, my husband said 'I had better order a cartload of corn and meat with it'. After one bottle I felt better. I took about a dozen bottles. I have never had an operation. . . . I have worked in the fields, done our washing, ironing and cooking; we have two orphan children added to our family for which I do as my own. I can praise Cardui as a God-send to women."

Cardui, the woman's tonic, is for sale at all druggists. Get it when in need of a good, reliable, strengthening tonic. Give it a fair trial.
