

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Official information from Nashville to the War Department represents the military work in that State as about finished, and it only remains to effect a civil reorganization of the State Government.

It is believed the United States forces will occupy Columbus to-day. The rebel forces under Albert Sydney Johnson are steadily being pressed backward by Gen. Buell.

Cotton to the amount of $100,000 has fallen into our hands at Nashville. The Treasury Department has taken measures to have it brought to New York.

The President has designated the Hon. Andy Johnson to be a Brigadier-General, and he proceeds to Tennessee to-morrow to open a military provisional government for Tennessee until the reconstruction of the civil government.—Brigadier-General Buell will be nominated to-morrow as Major-General.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A dispatch was to-day received from Commodore Foote, saying Lieut. Phelps, sent with a flag of truce to Columbus, has returned and reports that Columbus is being evacuated. He saw the rebels burning their winter quarters and removing the heavy guns on the Bluffs, but leaving those in the water batteries. The indications were that the town of Columbus, together with the military stores, had been burned.

General Shields succeeds General Lander in his command.

It is said to be clearly understood between the allied powers, that a Monarchy will be the result of the present invasion of Mexico, notwithstanding the assurances given the United States that the allies did not seek any political object there.

It is believed they will say the monarchy will be established by the free will of the Mexican people, just as the empire was established in France.

The War Department refuse to transmit any letters to the Southern States.

Reports received from all the military departments the past week represents condition of the troops as very good, and having a patriotic desire for action.

Major General Hitchcock declines his appointment, on the ground that ill health will not permit him to perform the duties of the field.

Gen. Lander died to-day, at Paw Paw, Western Virginia, from the debilitating effects of the wound received at Edwards Ferry.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The views of France were identical with England on the subject of the blockade. Government has been preparing all information on the subjects to lay before the Parliament.

Mr. O'Donnoghue gave notice of a motion of returns as to all British vessels which have run the blockade, or where captured in the effort.

The Patrie points to the effort to get cotton via Mexico as a probable solution of the blockade question.

The bourse was 7 1/2 10c.

The news from India says the supposed Nolah Sahib had been brought in irons to Bombay.

A commercial treaty has been signed between Russia and Turkey.

It is believed that England would withdraw from the Mexican expedition, should the aim be abandoned by France and by Spain, and should they interfere in internal policy of Mexico.

The belief continues in Italy that Austria meditates war against Piedmont.

Liverpool.—Flour and wheat steady. Corn downward.

Cotton closed firm, with improved tone. Consols closed 92 3/8. Illinois Central shares 43 3/4.

HALFAX, March 1.—The Arabia, from Liverpool Saturday the 15th, via Queenstown on the 16th, put in her short of coal at half-past one P. M. to-day.

The French papers think the Mexican question will lead to the fall of the Palmerston Cabinet.

The Archduke Maximilian is positively said to have accepted the Mexican throne.

In the House of Lords, Earl Russell, in reply to Lord Stanhope, stated that the Government had protested against the permanent destruction of any harbors by the stone blockade, and the American Government denied any such intention.

The expense to England of the Mason and Slidell affair is understood to be $61,000.

The Courier des Etats Unis publishes a letter from Paris announcing the departure of Don Juan Almonte, the Ex-Minister of War under Comandante to the Court of the Emperor. His Eccellence—who bears the character of a liberal conservative—it is alleged, carries with him a proposition of compromise between the Mexicans and the Allies, which has the full sanction of the Emperor, and for which popular acceptance and approval are confidently predicted. The proposition with which Almonte has been entrusted is understood to relate, in some way, to the establishment of a monarchy in the country. The offer of an Imperial ship-of-war to convey the Minister on his important mission was declined, and he is believed to have taken passage in one of the English mail steamers. We need offer no comments on an expedition the precise intent of which can only be matter of speculation.

The Weekly Register.

LOCAL.

Mr. Eorn.—You will please announce F. W. Sisson, as a candidate for the office of Commissioner of Revenue in District No. 1 at the ensuing Spring election. And oblige your obedient servant, MANY VOTERS.

John L. Charles, Esq., will accept our thanks for favors.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. John Leonard, to be found in another column. Mr. L. keeps constantly on hand a good assortment of Stoves, Tin-Ware, Sheet-Iron-Ware, &c. Persons wishing to purchase such articles, would do well to give him a call.

OUR TERMS.

We trust our subscribers will pardon us, when we remind them that our terms are cash in advance—or at least within two weeks from the date of subscription. We have put the price of our paper at the very lowest living figure, as an inducement for prompt payment, and will be compelled, therefore, to insist upon those who commence with the volume to call at once at the Captain's office and "fork."

In Town.

Mr. Fred. E. Foster, Editor, Reporter and Typo, late of Wheeling, Va., where he has been making himself useful by reporting the proceedings of the Legislature and Constitutional Convention, recently sitting in that city, paid our town a visit the other day, by way of recreation, and for the purpose of looking around generally. As he is a capital fellow and a clever writer withal, we would be glad to learn that he was sufficiently pleased with our little "burg" to make it his future home.

That Head.

We mean the head that appears on the first page of this number of our paper. We are well aware that it presents an appearance a little the hardest of anything of the kind that has ever been seen in this "neck of the woods," and it is but due our readers to state by way of apology, that we ordered suitable type for a heading, together with a lot of other articles, from Cincinnati, a fortnight or more ago, but were disappointed in receiving them, as the boat by which we sent our order was impressed into the Government service, and we have heard nothing from it since. In a few days we hope to receive the material ordered, and expect, therefore, that our next issue will present a much better appearance.

County Court.

The regular March term of the County Court, was held on last Monday, the 3rd inst. It was gratifying to see that the attendance upon the session though not large, was, considering the inclement state of the weather, quite respectable. A considerable amount of business was transacted, amongst which was the qualification of the new Magistrates, elected to fill the vacancies occasioned by the resignation, or removal of the late incumbents to take the oath prescribed by the Wheeling Convention. With the exception of two Justices of the Peace yet to qualify, (one of whom, we understand, declines to accept the position,) the reorganization of the Court is now complete. We congratulate the people of the County in view of the prospect of a speedy re-establishment of the power of the civil authorities and the restoration of law and order again in our borders.

County Militia.

We understand that the re-organization of the County Militia has been entirely completed, and that the following excellent selection of field officers, was recently made by the Company officers of the 106th Regiment, viz:

J. P. B. Smith, Colonel, Junius Kinkade, Lieut. Colonel, Van. D. McDaniel, Major.

Col. Smith is a thorough going business man, entirely familiar with the duties of the position to which he has been chosen, and we are authorized to say, that he will hold the officers under his command, to a strict observance of the laws regulating the militia, and especially the requirements in regard to uniform &c.

With the inauguration of a new order of things generally, let us, for Heaven's sake, have some improvement, if we can, upon these non-sensical farces known as militia musters.

Gen. Lander was a native of Salem, Massachusetts.

THE KANAWHA REPUBLICAN.—We are glad to know that this sterling old paper is again making its weekly visits, with its usual regularity. Not long since we met Father Newton, the venerable Editor of that paper, and were surprised at the change a few short months had wrought upon his once familiar features; but when we learned of the treatment our old and worthy friend had received at the hands of the beautiful pimps of Jeff Davis during their brief reign in Kanawha, his care-worn and haggard appearance was accounted for. We have heard and read much of the personal and professional life of Father Newton, but let us remember that Father Newton is entitled to a portion of our sympathy also. We hope the Union men of West Virginia will manifest their appreciation of his past services in some substantial manner.

ANOTHER REVIVAL.—We hail with joy every addition to the country press of West Virginia, all but two or three of which were extinguished by the rebellion. And therefore, we are pleased to note that another is to be added to the list which has been revived during the past four months, viz: "The Weekly Register," the first number of which is to be published to-day or to-morrow at Point Pleasant, Mason county.—[Wheeling Press.]

The 18th Circuit, J. N. Brown Judge, is composed of the following counties and the regular terms begin on the days following, viz:— Wayne—20th of March and August. Cabell—27th of March and August. Putnam—8th of April and September. Mason—18th of April and September. Jackson—21st of May and October. Kanawha—27th of May and October.

Adjournment of the Convention.—The Constitutional Convention at Wheeling appears to have adjourned, pleased with their labors and animated with confident hope and firm anticipations of the brilliant future career of West Virginia. In response to the resolutions of thanks to the President and other officers of the Convention on its adjournment, JOHN HALL, the President made the following address:—

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION.—Divisions of interest and divisions of feeling have impelled the people of Western Virginia to seek a separation from their eastern brethren.

To recount the grievances long and patiently borne, would consume more time than would be proper on this occasion. Suffice it to say justice and right are on our side. We ask nothing that is not right. We can submit to no more wrong. Charged as you were, with the high duty of forming the organic law of our new State, that is to be, you have labored with more than ordinary diligence and fidelity, have fully overcome the many trials, complications and obstacles that were in your path, and have completed an instrument eminently adapted to the wants and necessities, and that will prosperously shape the destinies of your constituents.

In it the great principles of free government are not only enunciated, but put in practical operation. The rights of all are secured, and the danger of maladministration is cautiously precluded. If not all that each desired, it is what all can take and defend. It is believed that its adoption will restore peace and harmony to a distracted people for a season, and that all the armies of the Union, and the progress of past events and the present existing circumstances have rendered the division of Virginia a necessary, a foregone conclusion. The sooner it is accomplished the better, and the sooner will it be heard and banished from all our people united in devotion to the National Union, and in the noble effort to promote the prosperity of our own West Virginia.

Permit me to express to you personally, my grateful thanks for the kindness and generosity bearing you have all ever manifested towards your presiding officer, whose failings and errors you have so manifestly overlooked and borne without a murmur—nor having taken a single appeal from the decision of the Chief during a session of nearly three months' labor. I cannot forego the pleasure of congratulating you upon the remarkable harmony and good feeling that has prevailed continually among the members of the Convention for each other. And when you have returned to your homes, may the friendships engendered amid our common struggles, trials and toil, now ended in the formation of the Constitution of West Virginia, be among the most pleasing recollections of the past!

In conclusion, permit me to wish you a speedy and a safe return to the embrace of your families and the hearty welcome of your constituents. Quoting more only remains to be done, and that is—to pronounce the Convention adjourned—which I now do.

The remains of Gen. Lander are on the way to Washington by way of Wheeling.

"The Eleventh Ohio," is the title of a neat little sheet, published by the soldiers of the 11th Ohio Regiment, at present quartered at (this place). "The Eleventh" is piquant, "rich and rare," and has been getting off some of the best things of the season. The mechanical execution of the paper is excellent, and the editorial department would reflect credit upon a sheet of much greater pretensions. We wish the "boys" great success.

It is said that half a dozen Confederate flags at Fort Donelson were thrown into the river. So the United States flag and the Confederate flag both floated there—one in the breeze, the other in the water.

From what he was enlisted for the whole world he has been looking for the hole in the rain.

The boys say that Marshall is well contented. Certainly his quarters are tremendous large.

AND GENERAL PRODUCE MERCHANTS.

Fever and Ague,

from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe, is the consequence of a diseased action in the system, induced by the poisonous miasm of vegetable decay. This exhalation is evolved by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the circulation, and enters the system, as from a fountain into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison, on the internal vessels and excreting organs of the body. The liver becomes torpid and fails to do its duty, only this virus, but also the bile accumulates in the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the blood, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also. Finally, to expel the miasmatic poison, as if in an attempt, the blood of the body infuses, concentrates the virus, and sends it out in the internal excretories to find its exit to the exterior. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the CHILL. But in this effort it fails. The virus follows, in which the blood leaves the interior organs and rushes to the surface, as from another fountain, and the irritating poison through another great excretory—the skin. In this also it fails, and the system abandons the attempt exhausted, and waits for the recovery of strength to repeat the hopeless effort another day. These are the fits or paroxysms of Fever and Ague, and the great variety and the distressing nature of our disorder also. Ayer's Ague Cure, which neutralizes this malarious poison in the blood, and stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. As it should, so it does cure this afflicting disorder with perfect certainty. And it does more, for it relieves the system of the miasmatic poison, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is taken in season it expels it from the system as it is absorbed, and this keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only cures, but prevents, from the great variety of diseases which are induced by this malignant influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodic Headache, or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Blindness, Toothache, Barache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hysteria, Colic, Paralysis, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume more or less the intermittent type. This "AGUE CURE" removes the cause of these derangements, and cures the disease.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has been for itself such a renowned for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is beyond dispute, and that it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.
