COAL PRICE FIXING

THE interpretation coal operators put upon the agreement which has been entered into with the government is not nearly so important as what the representatives of the Department of Justice understand it to mean, and it is clear that they believe the operators have agreed to stop all practices which have a tendency artificially to increase prices and to furnish

RUFF STUFF

Another Boston bank has been gathered in by the banking commission.
 Boston likes to be called the Athens of America, but in some respects it shows a high percentage of bones.
 It began by trying to give all its money to a guy who offered no security whatever.
 And it is winding up by trying to get what it has left in the banks out so that it can be secreted in old spots and coffee pots.
 The world series will begin this year on October 5.
 And there is just one thing in its favor.
 Any guy who takes the least interest in it does it at his own risk.
 Better not bet even on the way the games break.
 Most professional betters are born sneaks.
 On Labor Day one of the sneaks here after getting the result of the big fight jumped into an automobile and rushed out to South Side where in the grand stand, by catching big odds he managed to lay a few bets on what he knew was a sure thing.
 He got away with it, but what he deserved was a good ducking.
 And a ride out of town on a rail with instructions never to come back.
 Pilot of a mail plane was killed over in Pennsylvania last night when his plane struck a wire that spanned across a broad river.

Evening Chat

Wonder if the day will come when there will be an agitation to take down obstructions in the air that the ground that they are dangerous to navigation?
 It Pays to Be Decent.
 In criminal court yesterday a man was given the life sentence.
 It doesn't matter who he was neither you or I are interested in him personally. But as a human being, warped through bad influence, through unfortunate heredity perhaps, condemned because of his nature to life in prison, we can feel sorry for him. Not that we contemplate sending him either sympathetic letters or flowers, a quite casual happening in most of the large cities whenever a particularly lurid case end tragically. As a human we don't even want to know him because humans with souls who sink to very low depths are not at all lovely.
 The happening of yesterday however starts us thinking. What starts sinners on the downward path? I should say the lack of pride or self-respect. A man goes to the place where he doesn't wish to stand well in society—where he doesn't mind in the least being classed with the brainless and low.
 So he gives in to the smallest temptation and then to the next sized and so on to the biggest until he reaches the penitentiary. If he had even an ounce of brains he'd know better. For a man's brains tell him it pays to be half way decent in this world, no matter what the temptation.
 In some parts of Siberia most food is sold in frozen state, milk being sold in long sticks and meat chopped with axes.
 Cigar manufacturers spend nearly $55,000,000 annually for cedar boxes, which must not be used a second time.

MANNINGTON

Candidates Pass Through
 A large crowd including both men and women voters gathered at the B. and O. railroad station here this morning to hear Senator Harding briefly discuss the campaign issues when his party stopped here for a short time enroute to Wheelington. It is expected that as many will hear Candidate Roosevelt when his train passes through here tomorrow afternoon at 2:09 o'clock.

Pastor Advises Women to Vote.
 Speaking Sunday evening in the First Christian Church on "Christian Citizenship," Rev. B. E.
 Hanes, the pastor, requested the women of the church to cast their votes this fall against and all "wet" candidates, regardless of political affiliations. He does not ask that "politics be brought into the church," but that "the church enter politics when and wherever it can do good." He mentions passengers were disposed of at Underwood and Whistler made a cautious return trip here, where the matter was reported to Mr.

 Stagers, who is endeavoring to run down the robber, but so far unsuccessfully. It is believed the latter was after the weekly taxi re-

You Men Can Get a Good Shoe for $10. Or Less Here

Tanneries all over the country have reduced the price of raw leather, and manufacturers have been able to quote us a better price on our new Fall shoes, enabling us to sell them to you much lower than at any time during the past two or three years.
 In fact, right now we have many different styles of Walk-Over high and low shoes that we are selling at $10.00 and even as low as $8.00. Of course some of the more distinctive styles are a little higher, but the man who wants to be conservative can get an extra good shoe here for as low as $8.00.
