Paving the Way to Make Your Want Ads Pay

The West Virginian has taken the lead in creating public interest favorable to classified advertisements.

The first step toward making YOUR Want Ad resultful is to make it read and in line with that commonsense idea we are attracting more and more reader-attention to The West Virginian classified columns.

This is how we are making our classified columns, and hence YOUR Want Ad read: We are keeping before public notice the facts about Want Ad results—pulling powers—we are directing attention to our classified columns through the means of copy printed elsewhere in the paper—we are causing people to turn to our classified columns as a regular habit every evening. It all means that YOUR Want Ad will be read.

More and more Want Ads are being published in The West Virginian because we are paving the way to make them pay. You can use Want Ads for a few cents a day.
