SETTING THE STYLES

PARIS.—Walking sticks for women are being made in an interesting variety today. Some have the stolid, masculine appearance which betokens practical use, but others are as frivolous as the crook of a drozen shepherdess.

PARIS.—At the moment, the feminine arm is a cascade—or perhaps a ladder—of glass bangles. Each bangle is a different color and the effect is both bright and noisy.

LONDON.—The one-sleeve dress is here again. It seems to be a happy compromise between the long, tight sleeve and no sleeve at all, since one arm is quite bare and the other amply draped.

LONDON.—There are shoes of elephant skin now. This use for elephants is not likely to become a fact, since the source is getting scarce. But at the moment, several prominent London women have soft gray shoes made from Jumbo's hide.

CITY BRIEFS

Mayor S. K. Loy returned this morning from a brief business visit to Cheyenne.

Among Denver business men visiting in Casper today are D. M. Carley, E. P. Kato and E. M. Oscher.

J. C. Dralle, representative of the Westinghouse Electric company, returned to Pittsburgh last night after being here on business in connection with electrical work of the Midwest Refining company.

Mrs. Porter Emerson Lamb, mother of six children, is a justice of the peace in San Francisco.

Two women now are among the seven members of the board of trustees of the Cincinnati public library.

The Women's Trade Union league of America will hold its ninth biennial convention in New York City, June 16-21.

Throwing superstition to the winds, English brides have decided that green is the fashionable color for spring weddings.

The centenary of the death of Jane Taylor, author of "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star," has been commemorated with a special service in the village church in Essex, Eng.

When a child is born, the Hindus light fires to frighten away the demons.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advertisement.

CHEYENNE TRAFFIC TO BE TIED UP BY FIGHT OVER PAVING PROGRAM

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 5.—Refusal of the Cheyenne Electric Street Railway company to tear up its tracks, or to permit the city to tear them up, in order that street paving may be done in the business district, will result in a situation wherein vehicular traffic in the business district will be impossible for weeks, predicts City Commissioner Cal Holiday, who adds that this condition may prevail at the worst possible time—while the annual Frontier Days celebration is in progress next July. The Street Railway company stockholders will meet on June 19, to consider a proposal that the corporation abandon service to Fort Russell and in Cheyenne. Under the original paving plans, Holiday explains, it was the intention to pave a "loop" in the business district that would permit an uninterrupted flow of vehicular traffic. The refusal of the Street Railway company to cooperate, he states, will prevent carrying out this plan and will result in traffic stagnation in the down-town section while paving is in progress.

Cheyenne, following exposure when lost with Undersheriff G. C. Lankford recently near Marshall, 40 miles from a railroad, was received today by Mrs. Lankford in the form of a letter from Mr. Harris' assistant, Eloise Ellsworth.

It was due to Lankford's pluck and stamina that Harris was rescued about midnight and rushed to the Medicine Bow railroad station in an automobile. Fear that the relapse may prove fatal is expressed.
