

The Magees slip quietly away from Post Street.

THE MAGEES SLIP QUIETLY AWAY FROM POST STREET

YES , after thirty-six years of the hurly-burly on Post Street the David Magee Book Shop is about to move to Cow Hollow, once a rural and now still a delightful part of San Francisco.

As of September 1, 1964, our new address will be: DAVID MAGEE ANTIQUARIAN BOOKS 3108 B Fillmore Street San Francisco 94123

This is between Filbert and Greenwich Streets on a corner of an alley named Pixley. From downtown San Francisco (Union Square) this is a matter of ten minutes by car and fifteen minutes by bus (Nos. 41 and 45).

Here the keynote will be informality. Indeed the Magees plan to be so informal there will be times when they will not be there at all. So, dear friends, please telephone first before you come to visit us. We shall welcome you with old books, comfortable chairs and rare cordials. Our new telephone number will be 567-1888.

Printed at the Grabhorn Press

The engraving shown is the frontispiece for "A True Copy... for the Tryal of K. Charles I..." London, 1684.

PART. 2 no. 39y

2/39y
