

A third term menace. Dedicated to James Otis, and Patrick Henry- the orators of the American revolution ... William Kimberley Palmer. Chicopee, Massachusetts, U. S. A. February 1928, A. D.

A THIRD TERM MENACE

Dedicated to James Otis and Patrick Henry-The Orators of The American Revolution

In the event of any American seeking a Third Term as President of the United States. Such American and those supporting him, can be counted as Traitors to the real and permanent interests of the Republic founded by Washington, and his renowned Associates; and to the Example set by The Father of his Country, and by Jefferson, Jackson, and Lincoln.

If such an American were ever elected to a Third Term through the folly of his Countrymen, and the hidden power of Capital, he would not unlikely be the Target of some Citizen who regarded such Election as Revolutionary and destructive of Liberty and the Life of our Great Republic.

WILLIAM KIMBERLEY PALMER

Chicopee, Massachusetts U. S. A.

February 1928, A. D.

Library of Congress Compliments of William Kimberley Palmer