FOR THE OCCASION OF THE One Millionth Volume

CELEBRATED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA LIBRARIES—LINCOLN 13 JULY 1971 LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Books:

A book is the only place in which you can examine a fragile thought without breaking it, or explore an explosive idea without fear it will go off in your face. It is one of the few sources of information left that is served up without the silent black noise of a headline, the doomy hullabaloo of a commercial. It is one of the few havens remaining where a man's mind can get both provocation and privacy.

BOOKS is quoted from Clearing the Air by Edward P. Morgan and published by Luce and is one of 125 Commentaries given over the American Broadcasting Company.
