Cincinnati, 25th April, 1873.

The friends of the late Right Rev. Charles Pettit McIlvaine have determined to erect a suitable monument to his memory, in the very appropriate and beautiful lot owned by the family, in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Messrs. Larz Anderson, Henry Probasco, George K. Shoenberger, and Emmanuel J. Miller, have consented to act as a Committee, to receive subscriptions, procure a design, and complete the whole, without any delay.

The “Standard of the Cross” will contain in the number to be issued 26th July, 1873, a full-page Illustration, showing the beautiful site with the monument, and the names of the subscribers. The enclosed checks may be drawn upon any banker, or bank, and returned immediately to
