ELEGANT FAMILY BIBLE, WITH A COPIOUS CONCORDANCE.

THE FLATTERING ENCOURAGEMENT RECEIVED BY MATHEW CAREY, FOR HIS RECENT EDITION OF THE BIBLE, HAS INDUCED HIM TO LAY BEFORE THE PUBLIC THE FOLLOWING PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION, A SECOND PHILADELPHIA EDITION OF THE BIBLE, IN QUARTO:

WHICH SHALL CONTAIN,

1. THE Books of the Old Testament, the Apocrypha, and the New Testament, as translated by order of King James I. of England.
2. A chronological Table of the most remarkable Events recorded in the Scriptures, from the creation to the death of Christ.
3. A Table of the different Characters and Officers spoken of in the Bible.
4. A Table of Scripture Weights, Measures, and Coins, reduced to the standard of those of the United States.
5. An alphabetical Table of the proper names, used in the Old and New Testaments, with the meaning of the words in the original languages.
6. A Table of the divisions of time among the Jews.
7. A Chronological Table of the Apostles, and their successors, who founded and presided over the five grand Churches.

8. A Chronological Index of the years and times from Adam unto Christ.
9. Portrait of an apostolic Preacher, from Cowper.
10. A Table of kindred and affinity, within which, according to the Jewish and American laws, no person ought to contract marriage.
11. A Clergyman's address to married persons, containing a seasonable and judicious sketch of the requisites to happiness in the married state.
12. A curious analytical dissection of the Books of the Old and New Testaments.
13. A geographical Sketch of the Boundaries, Rivers, Mountains, Chief Towns, Population, and other particulars, respecting Palestine, with a view of the present masters and miseries of that once happy country.
14. A copious concordance to the Holy Scriptures, by which the principal texts of scripture may be easily found out. By the learned and indefatigable John Brown, of Haddington.
15. Thirty elegant Engravings, to be executed by the first artists in America, including two Maps, one of Palestine, and the other of the journeyings of the Children of Israel from Egypt to the Land of Promise.
16. A valuable family record, containing four pages, handsomely divided for marriages, births, deaths, &c. &c.

TERMS.

- I. It shall be put to press as early in the spring as the types (which are now casting at the foundery of Binney and Ronaldson) can be executed, and shall be finished about the close of next summer.
- II. It shall be elegantly printed on a superfine Paper, and neatly and durably bound.
- III. The price to subscribers will be Eight Dollars, payable in Philadelphia, on the delivery of the Books; to non-subscribers the price will be considerably raised.
- IV. Those who procure ten subscribers, and become responsible for the payment, shall be entitled to a copy gratis. [Such gentlemen as choose to co-operate with the publisher, are requested to apply for subscription-papers.]

V. Subscriptions received by the intended publisher, and a number of respectable gentlemen authorised by him.

VI. Subscribers' names shall be published.

VII. Those subscribers who do not send for their books within four months from the time of publication, will be obliged to pay as non-subscribers.

[???] Those who hold subscription-papers are particularly requested to return them on or before the 1st day of August next, at which time the subscription will be closed.

M. C. hopes to be able to render this edition of the Bible as elegant as any offered to the American Public, either of foreign or domestic manufacture.
