

Notice to the public. At the request of the Executrix of the late Col. William Byrd of Westover, it is thought proper to warn the public against the purchase of supposed titles to lots in the City of Richmond, to which the seller can show no legal title derived from the trustees of Col Byrd, or no equitable one by the production of a ticket to which they are entitled ... Thomas Taylor. Richmond, December 9, 1813.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

At the request of the Executrix of the late Col. William Byrd of Westover. it is thought proper to warn the public against the purchase of supposed titles to Lots in the City of Richmond, to which the seller can show no legal title derived from the trustees of Col. Byrd, or no equitable one by the production of a ticket, to which they are entitled. Persons who have taken possession of Lots without either of these titles, can certainly convey none to a purchaser; and the Trustees will be called on forthwith to pursue the legal remedies for the purpose of taking the possession of all such property, and holding it for the purposes of the trust, and of Col. Byrd's Will.

Thomas Taylor.

Richmond, December 9, 1813.