THE GHOSTS OF WINDSOR PARK By Harold Brighthouse

A PHANTASY

PRESENTED BY THE WILLIAM AND MARY PLAYERS WITH THE COOPERATION OF THE DEPARTMENTS OF MUSIC AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION UNDER THE DIRECTION OF Althea Hunt, A.M., Associate Professor of English

Historical Note

As early as 1608, there were women settlers at Famestown. During the first years of the colony, under the inspiration of Sir Edwin Sandys, many maids of good character were sent from England by the Virginia Company to become the wives of the Virginia colonists. Our play presents an incident from this chapter of Colonial History.
