ARRANGEMENTS FOR LAYING THE Corner Stone OF JACKSON CITY

Monday. 11 January. 1836

The Stone will be laid this day, at 12 o'clock, by the President of the United States. The Procession will be formed at Brown's Hotel, at 10 o'clock in the morning, according to the following order:

Marine Corps and Band.

The Committee of the Jackson City Association.

Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia.

ORATOR.

Heads of Departments.

Members of Congress. Officers of Congress.

Officers of the Civil Department of the United States.

Military Officers of the United States.

Navy Officers of the U. States.

Officers of the Militia of the District of Columbia.

Members and Officers of the Councils of Washington, Georgetown, Alexandria, and Baltimore.

Judges and Officers of the several Courts of the District.

Officers and Members of Literary, Mechanic, and other Societies.

Professors and Students of Seminaries of Learning. Citizens and Strangers.

VOLUNTEER COMPANIES.
In this order the procession will march to the East end of the Potomac Bridge, where it will be joined by the President of the United States and Suite, and proceed from thence to the site of the new city, where the ceremonies will be completed.

The following Citizens have been appointed Marshals for the day, and will be respected accordingly:
Col R. Dulany,
R. Beale,
J. N. Moulder,
Col. Brearley,
Capt. Brockett,
Col. Hodson,
John O'Sullivan,
Col. T. Corcoran,
Maj. Th. B. Reilly,
E. Mason,
J. Mason,
E. J. Hume

The Marshals will appear with blue Sashes. As soon as the ceremonies are over, the company will partake of Refreshments and a Collation.

January 8th, 1836.