

Prospectus for Kendall's expositor ... [1840?].

PROSPECTUS FOR KENDALL'S EXPOSITOR.

Amos Kendall proposes to establish a semi-monthly newspaper under the above name, to be devoted to the following objects, viz:

1. The security of the right of suffrage by additional laws to punish bribery and fraud.
2. An exposure of abuses and corruptions in government, wherever known to exist.
3. An exposition of the principles of modern banking, and its effects upon labor, trade, morals, and government, embracing the nature and uses of money, and a history of the origin and progress of paper money in its various forms.

To these will be added all the topics common in the newspapers of the day, with a summary of news carefully compiled, forming an accurate history of passing events.

Avoiding all personal altercations, this paper, while it will not conceal its preferences for men, will confine itself chiefly to the elucidation of facts and principles, leaving the ruder portions of political controversy to younger hands.

The Expositor will be printed in the neatest manner upon a royal sheet, folded in octavo form, each number making sixteen pages, with an index at the end of each volume, embracing one year. It will thus form a book containing a history of the times, with much other useful and entertaining matter.

Price —ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM, paid in advance. No accounts will be kept, and the paper will not be sent until the money be actually received.

Bank notes will be taken at their specie value.

To those who collect and forward ten dollars, an additional copy will be sent gratis.

Postmasters are permitted by law to forward subscription money in letters written by themselves.

All letters to the Editor must be free or post paid.

•As the postage on this paper will be but one cent to one and a half each number, it is in the power of every man to procure all the important news, and a vast deal of other useful matter, at not exceeding ONE DOLLAR AND THIRTY-SIX CENTS PER ANNUM.

SUBSCRIBERS' NAMES. POST OFFICE WHERE THE PAPER IS TO BE SENT. NO. OF COPIES.
