BY TELEGRAPH TO “UNION,” WASHINGTON.

To the Editor of the Union:

New Orleans, Sept. 26, 1847.

Sir: The J. L. Day arrived here last evening from Vera Cruz. The news by her is important. The details are meagre, and something uncertain. The main points are, that the armistice has been concluded, without a treaty of peace; and, after a considerable amount of hard fighting, the city of Mexico was captured, and our troops entered. Gen. Bravo was killed. Santa Anna was wounded, and has retired with his shattered forces to Guadalupe, about twelve miles from the city. The entrance to the city was on the 16th. The reports are that Scott lost from 1,000 to 1,700 men, killed and wounded.

Respectfully, yours, &c.
