HERTLING'S PEACE PLEA LARGELY AN ATTACK ON THE ALLIES

Germany Would Listen to Plea from Belgium

Byっぱ(5,5),(992,988)

WASHINGTON SEES NO HOPE IN SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. — Secretary of State Kellogg's speech today did nothing to change the attitude of the German Government toward conciliation. He was unable to impress the German Government with the fact that the United States Government is prepared to entertain a proposal for a peace conference.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.

The German Government is still firm in the attitude that it will not make peace except on its own terms.